PREFATORY NOTE.

THE PROPRIETORS of the 'POST OFFICE EDINBURGH AND LEITH DIRECTORY,' in issuing the One Hundred and Sixth Edition of the annual publication, take this opportunity to bring before the notice of their Subscribers, and the General Community, some very important features in the book.

It is their aim, as far as possible, that the Streets Directory should be reserved for the names of occupiers only; the fuller information 'contained in the General,' viz. occupations, designations, titles, etc., being sufficient for purposes of reference.

The Trades Directory has been generally revised, and several of the headings, 'formerly combined,' have been separated. 'Illustrated blocks' have been introduced, and entries of this description may be arranged for in any part of the Trades Section at a moderate cost.

The Notice of the Public is drawn to the embodiment, in abstract, under Stamp and Inland Revenue Duties, of the Finance (1909-10) Act, 1910. This Act provides for Duties on Land Values, Amendment of Death Duties, Legacy Duties, and Income Tax; Stamp Duties on Conveyances and Transfers of Sales, and Marketable Securities and Leases; Duties on Motor Spirits, and Motor Car Licences, etc.

The Map and Plan of the City is uncoloured, except the boundaries, where the divisions, Parliamentary and Municipal, are shown in distinctive colours. The streets and places are marked in black ink, and are easily discerned, while the paper itself is of a superior texture, and will be more enduring.

The Proprietors desire to express their gratitude to the public for the unflinching and liberal support accorded to them from year to year, and also to the gentlemen connected with the various Public Institutions and Societies who revise and add to the Miscellaneous Section.

Notwithstanding the amalgamation of Portobello, and other outlying districts, with Edinburgh, these places are still treated for Postal purposes as formerly, and are not included in the ordinary deliveries from the General Post Office.

Every effort has been made to ensure accuracy, but the Proprietors do not accept responsibility for errors or omissions.

EXPLANATION.—In the Left-hand Table are the years of the Century, and above each is the Dominical Letter corresponding with that Year. Then, opposite to the Month, at the foot of the Right-hand Table, will be found a corresponding Letter, over which are placed the Days of the Month and Week for that Month (distinguishing the Sundays by a different type). Each Blank Space in the Left-hand Table shows the Year following to be Leap Year; and as every Leap Year has two Dominical Letters, the Letter above the Blank Space must be used for January and February in every Leap Year; and for the other months, use the Letters belonging to the respective Years. By transposing the Dominical Letters, this Calendar would answer for any Century. For example:—"The Letters were arranged thus, E D C B A G F for years 1800 to 1899 (the year 1800 beginning with a Wednesday); and for 2000 to 2099 they will be arranged B A G F E D C (the year 2000 beginning with a Saturday)."
